Dear Parishioners,

"This is the day the day the Lord has made. Let us be glad and rejoice in it." These words of Psalm 118 remind us of the joy and meaning we celebrate on Easter day. Jesus' resurrection is not only something that happened to him. Because God is so good, we too share in the newness of life that emerged from the tomb that Easter morning so long ago. Perhaps there is a family relationship that needs healing, or a professional conflict that needs resolution, a personal struggle or spiritual challenge that we must face, all of these and so much more can be brought into the light of these Easter days. Easter reminds us that we were not created for conflict, anxiety, and all the other forms of darkness that can assail us. On this day the Lord has made we recognize that we were created for peace, inner well-being and the light that comes from walking with Christ. He did indeed rise body and soul from the tomb, but he also wants to rise in our hearts. We simply have to claim that grace and allow him to enter our hearts more fully. Fr. Juan, the Sisters of the parish, our staff and I wish you the peace and blessings of the risen Lord. May his light and life bring hope to our troubled world, an end to the atrocities in Ukraine, and freedom from violence, fear, and hatred in our own city. When we face the dark times that come for us all at different moments, we have the clear message of John's gospel as our hope, "A light shines in the darkness and the darkness can never put it out." Happy Easter to you and your families,

Msgr. Caserta

Msgr. Caserta

Special and sincere thanks are extended to all who made our memorial palm crosses and Easter flowers such a beautiful tribute to our living and deceased loved ones and a significant financial help to the parish.
